

As a sponsor of ODF through its premier Annual Conference and Community Engagement and Learning offerings, you will reach a highly targeted and powerful group of professionals who focus on organization design. The ODF community ranges from internal and external consultants, organizational leaders, and thought leaders, as well as educators from industry, government, and non-profits.

Partnering with Organization Design Forum in a virtual capacity for 2021 will connect your business to dozens of Organization Design practitioners in a positive, professional learning environment.
